

HANDOUT 2.2.5

RELIGIONS IN GERMANY CUBE PROJECT

INTRODUCTION: The German Basic Law guarantees freedom of religious practice. The increased pluralism of German society is matched by the growth of religious diversity with the growth of Islam (the religion of most of Germany's Turks) and the revitalization of Judaism (since the fall of the Soviet Union).

TASK: Create your own Religions in Germany Cube. This 6 sided cube will include 6 different ideas of your choosing on the general topic, which you will be required to research independently.

CONDITIONS: Your cube must be between 64 cubic inches and 1000 cubic inches. In other words, the sides of your cube must measure somewhere between 4 and 10 inches.

Each side can include text and/or visuals in order to represent a different aspect of religion in Germany (For example: German Basic Law regarding religion, Catholicism, Protestantism (Evangelical Churches), Islam, Judaism, atheism, to name a few topics).
