The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
 O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
 And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
 Oh, say, does the star-spangled banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
