

Letter from Germany

Dear Robert,

I'm writing you from Berlin at the end of my trip to Germany. It's been an excellent trip.

We left Atlanta two weeks ago and flew to _____, a city in the Alpine Foothills, and capital of Bavaria. The city is among the world's most beautiful.

Next we drove northwest using route _____ which is an autobahn, or expressway.

Most of the time there was no speed limit! We crossed the _____ River and arrived at the city of _____.

Here, we visited the famous castle which overlooks the Neckar River with its ruins. From there we followed autobahn _____ north on our way to _____ which is known for its international airline traffic and for being an important international financial market. From there we drove _____ to _____ which had been the seat of government, but now Berlin is the capital.

While in that city, we took a cruise on Germany's busiest river, the _____. It's a beautiful river! Its valley lies in a picturesque landscape with countless ancient castles overlooking the river from the surrounding hills.

We traveled on the river northwest to a waterway called the Dortmund-Ems-Canal where we traveled by boat east and north to the _____ River.

We got off the boat in a small village and traveled by train northeast to the city-state of _____, on the _____ River.

After leaving this old port city, we took a commuter flight to _____ the formerly divided city. It's so strange to see remnants of the wall that used to keep people from the eastern side from crossing into the West. This city is so vivid! I met so many people from all over the world living there.

I really hope to visit here again! Maybe we can get a school group to come here!

See you soon,

Jennifer

Dear Robert,

I'm writing you from Berlin at the end of my trip to Germany. It's been an excellent trip.

We left Atlanta two weeks ago and flew to ___Munich___, a city in the Alpine Foothills, and capital of Bavaria. The city is among the world's most beautiful.

Next we drove northwest using route ___8___ which is an autobahn, or expressway.

Most of the time there was no speed limit! We crossed the ___Danube___ River and arrived at the city of _Heidelberg_. Here, we visited the famous castle which overlooks the Neckar

River with its ruins. From there we followed autobahn __5__ north on our way to ___Frankfurt___ which is known for its international airline traffic and for being an important international financial market. From there we drove _northwest_ to _Bonn_ which had been the seat of government, but now Berlin is the capital.

While in that city, we took a cruise on Germany's busiest river, the __Rhine River__. It's a beautiful river! Its valley lies in a picturesque landscape with countless ancient castles overlooking the river from the surrounding hills.

We traveled on the river northwest to a waterway called the Dortmund-Ems-Canal where we traveled by boat east and north to the ___Ems___ River.

We got off the boat in a small village and traveled by train northeast to the city-state of ___Bremen___, on the _Weser___ River.

After leaving this old port city, we took a commuter flight to ___Berlin_ the formerly divided city. It's so strange to see remnants of the wall that used to keep people from the eastern side from crossing into the West. This city is so vivid! I met so many people from all over the world living there.

I really hope to visit here again! Maybe we can get a school group to come here!

See you soon,
